It there were 15 instructors in the political and 25 instructors in the military course. There were 1,000 students in the political course and 2,000 students in the military	25X1
5.	The political course consisted of the history of the Bolsheviks, MAC Tse-tung's History of the Chinese Revolution, sociological development, principles of capitalism and administrative law. The military course consisted of the same subjects as the political course, except for administrative law, with the addition of the study of two books by CHU Te, People's Liberation Army and Eight Years of Hard Fighting.	-
6.	The Academy, which has both a three-month and a six-month term, has had the following number of graduates	25X1

	All the graduates of the political course are sent to the Staff Personnel Section, Office of Secretary of the Yenchi (129-30, 42-55) Administrative Office, for practical training, after which they are placed in government agencies at ranks above sub-section chief. About 75 percent of the government executives in the Mortheast Lanchuria area are graduates of the political course of the Academy.
	The commissars of the Kirin Hilitary District direct the placement of graduates from the military course in local regiments with the rank of platoon commarker and above. While the students are at the school they receive free room and board. Since no actual military subjects are taught at the school, the courses are named according to the object of the training, rather than the training itself Comment.	5X1
